

Carpenters Reserve Offers New Luxury Home Opportunities in Newark, Delaware

Wilkinson Builders and Hillcrest Associates are pleased to announce a new and rare opportunity for luxury home ownership in northern New Castle County, Delaware. Nestled only minutes from quaint downtown Newark, Carpenters Reserve presents five generous home sites ranging from 3 to 5 acres, with extensive open area and an expansive wooded backdrop, all situated on a charming, quiet cul-de-sac. Wake to the tranquility of peaceful streams and glistening meadows. Create your own treasure surrounded by preserved land sheltering wildlife. Discover life at nature's door. Carpenters Reserve is luxury redefined, offering a sense of charm and elegance enhanced with sophisticated styling and classic architecture.

Carpenters Reserve also offers something new to the northern Newark area with its semi-secluded setting coupled with convenient access to the U.S. Route 1 bypass, I-95, SR 1 and MD Route 273. The location allows an easy commute to major cities, train stations and airports. Carpenters Reserve is only minutes from shopping centers and restaurants and is adjacent to the beautiful White Clay Creek State Park. At Carpenters Reserve you are close to everything, yet nestled in your own private enclave you feel miles away.

Another benefit of this location is the proximity and easy commute to local schools and colleges. Carpenters Reserve is located within the Christiana School District and Newark Charter School area and also offers numerous private school alternatives. The renowned University of Delaware is just a few miles away, providing a highly valued educational opportunity. Lincoln University and other nearby community colleges are less than a 15 minute drive.

Choose from a wide variety of luxury floor plans designed and developed by distinguished architect Rick Longo P.E., A.I.A. and founder of Hillcrest Associates. Each floor plan offered at Carpenters Reserve has been created to offer design flexibility and to allow you to add your own personal touch. You have the opportunity to design your new home to reflect the character, feeling and look that you desire.

Hillcrest Associates is a design and consulting firm located in Landenberg, PA, with over 30 years of comprehensive design service experience. Hillcrest Associates takes pride in its extensive list of successful projects, which include the design of residential communities and regionally renowned golf courses.

With over 25 years of experience as a family oriented and operated business, Wilkinson Builders takes pride in creating an excellent experience for homebuyers, in providing an unparalleled level of customer service, and in the resulting satisfaction of so many homeowners over the years. There is something unique and special about a Wilkinson Builders home, unmatched by any other homebuilder. Wilkinson Builders goes beyond merely delivering a beautifully finished product and redefines the very essence of the home buying experience.

Rarely are there properties in the region offering so much as Carpenters Reserve...surrounded by preserved land, with exploration at your doorstep, custom designed architecture and a unique opportunity to create a legacy for your family for years to come. This is a once in a lifetime chance to make your dreams a reality. Come discover the unparalleled beauty of Carpenters Reserve.

For more information about Carpenters Reserve please call Mike Rullo at the Harrogate Information Center, 610-268-2300, or Hillcrest Associates, 610-274-8613. Directions to the Harrogate Information Center: From DE, follow Route 7 north just over the DE/PA line. Turn left onto Southwood Road. Proceed 0.4 mile to community on right. (GPS address: 853 Southwood Rd., Landenberg, PA).